PennPAT Launches New Website

www.pennpat.org

Philadelphia, PA - Pennsylvania Performing Arts on Tour (PennPAT), a program of the Mid Atlantic Arts Foundation, has just launched its new website, which includes information about 155 professional Pennsylvania performing artists and groups featured on the 2007 PennPAT Roster. The site also offers grant guidelines, applications, report forms and links to artist websites, documents and resources for artists and performing arts presenters.

New Features include:

- Keyword Search - don't know an artist's name? Find him/her using other words likely to be found in a description of the artist.
- A "Favorites" section - allows you to bookmark artists
- A new "Featured Artist" every time the website is loaded
- eGRANT - apply for presenter Fee-Support and New Directions grants online
- See Roster Artist Performances - a list of upcoming funded engagements by PennPAT Roster Artists
- Research and articles
- FAQ
- Sign up for email news

-more-

The purpose of PennPAT is to increase opportunities for professional Pennsylvania performing artists to obtain successful touring engagements. Artists on the PennPAT roster are eligible for a variety of grants and services related to touring. Through its Fee-Support and New Directions grants, PennPAT supports touring engagements with roster artists in an 11-state region that includes DC, DE, MD, NC, NJ, NY, OH, PA, VA, WV and the U.S. Virgin Islands. PennPAT also provides Travel Grants to presenters from anywhere in the United States who wish to see a performance by PennPAT Roster Artist.

PennPAT, a program of Mid Atlantic Arts Foundation, was developed and is funded by the Heinz Endowments; the William Penn Foundation; the Pennsylvania Council on the Arts, a state agency; and The Pew Charitable Trusts.

Mid Atlantic Arts Foundation celebrates, promotes, and supports the wealth and diversity of the region's arts resources and works to increase access to the arts and culture of the region and the world.
